Earnest and Lizzie Feutisch, son and daughter of Chas. Feutisch, one of our substantial farmers in Canville township, came in from Albuquerque, New Mexico where they have been for some time.

Union Valley.

Tuesday, March 9.—McKinley has made the times some better already. Eggs were seven cents per dozen March 4th, and on March 5th they were eight. How is that for a change?

Harry Thompson is working for Alex McDonald.

Arch McDonald and Bob King moved to Chanute last week.

Mr. Tenny's young folks spent last Sunday with Alex McDonald and family.

Walter Huffman, of Chanute, has hired to L. P. Terry to assist in spring work.

John McGowan and family visited Walt Creasy and family near Urbana last Sunday.

Uncle Henry Clatfelter will have a sale of cattle, horses and household goods Tuesday, March 10th.

Charley Kely has moved into the Herman house, and will farm the west eighty acres of the Angel farm.

Uncle Henry Clatfelter and wife, L. P. Terry and family, and Fred and Rosa Bowers were the guests of J. A. Biggs and family last Sunday.

A lady of this neighborhood who is a reader of the TIMES, informed us the other day that she thought the manager of it must have some great love affair or family trouble on his mind, or else he would get the chapters of that continued story a little straighter. [It was the "devil's" fault.—Ed.]

Thayer.

Wednesday March 10, 1897.—Mrs. Emery who was reported as being quite sick is some better and her friends anticipate an early recovery.

W. B. Race was quite sick one day this week.

We understand Geo. Gelwix is improving nicely at Eureka Springs.

T. W. Mead is making preparations to move to Bigelow, Kansas, in about three weeks. He has his sale bills out for March 17th. Sorry to lose Mr. Mead and family, they cannot be improved upon.

A large delegation of Woodmen came up from Cherryvale and assisted the camp here to have a log rolling. They made wood choppers of the following: Ed Eagles, H. G. Lowrance, John Minnich and Harry Carter.

Chanute has a young man whose Thayer mail has gotten so valuable here of late that he has sent to him by special delivery. We have not learned his name but are informed he stays in Freeman's Racket store.

We noticed County Attorney Clime on our streets last Wednesday. We learn he was here looking after the state's interests in the case of the state vs. Ira Bowham, charge assault. The case comes from near Galesburg.

Shaw.

Wednesday, March 10. — Sheriff Prange was circulating in this vicinity last Monday, serving the necessary papers for the proper administration of justice at the next term of district court.

Tyler Post 489, had its officers installed last Saturday, and is now in good shape for a long season of prosperity and usefulness.

O. M. Kuetzer has purchased ten acres of ground adjoining the northern suburbs of Shaw, and will commence the erection of a building thereon for his future residence.

David M. Hoffman has a part of the lumber on the ground for a new house.

Mr. Yockey came down from Chanute last Tuesday and took charge of the railroad section.

Ed Houston having disposed of his surplus property and making satisfactory arrangements, started with his family for Oklahoma last Monday. It is said he has one of the best claims in the Territory. Ed is a hard worker, energetic and reliable, and will no doubt become a prominent citizen in his anticipated home.

We learn that our old friend, Locky Mathes was married in Missouri about two weeks ago. We have not learned the name of the happy bride, but as to Locky, we know that he is an exemplary young man and in every way worthy of the best feminine product of Kansas or Missouri.

Shaw items are not complete without the notice of a wedding or two. Last Sunday, Mr. Sam Hudson and Miss Ada Platt joined hearts and hands at the home of the brides' aunt, Miss Lottie Miller, about two miles north of here. Rev. Saunders, of Erie, performed the ceremony. A large number of friends and neighbors were present, and all partook of the bounteous repast prepared for the event. Both of the directly interested parties are highly respected and very popular in this vicinity.

The good old song of strength and beauty combined as one for every duty. Peace, joy, good luck be with them ever. While on life's boat they sail together. [On account of the late arrival of the Shaw items, a number of them have been omitted. They will appear next week. Our itemizers will kindly get their items in on Monday or Tuesday at farthest.—Editor.]
